Comments

“ I remember Harold coming over to my Grandmother's house (Evelyn "Ellison" Gentry - Harold's older sister) when I was young and all of his brothers and sisters were still living. He enjoyed playing games with the brothers and sisters at my grandmother's table. He was a little quieter and softer-spoken than his brother Lloyd or sister Fran, but he always seemed to have something clever, yet kind, to say. He seemed to always thinking and had a very intelligen and gentle smile. He was very nice to us kids when he came around. He was a good man that showed care and concern wherever he went. He was my grandmother's little brother by almost 20 years and I know she always very protective over Harold. I can still hear hisaugh and see his smile. With "Uncle" Harold's passing, more of my childhood disappears but I know his smile will forever shine down on us all. Time to go join Hardy, Eva Love,my grandmother and the rest of your brothers and sisters of the great Ellison clan. Rest in peace, Harold Ray.
